Our experience in Memphis is directly the reverse. Ever since the hot weather set in there has been a gradual decrease of crime, and the number of arrests have dwindled from forty, fifty and even sixty a day, to iwenty. Yesterday morning the Recorder disposed of only seventeen cases, and most of them were either fined a trifling amount or discharged. Eds. Appeal: You will pardon me for again troubling you with a communication, touching the eligibility of Captain Lacey as a member of Congress. "Democrat," in his last article, has driven the "Democrat" says, "If he can under-stand the force of the English language, that there is nothing in the 'oath' that works a disqualification of Captain Lacey." I must confess, with all deference te "Democrat," that he and I have studied very different rules for the interpretation of plain language.

The "oath" expressly disqualities all men who have "given aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement" to persons engaged in armed hostility to the government of the United States.

Now, taking the statements of "Democrat" to be true (and I firmly believe they are, how do such sets of aid comport with the strict letter of the oath above quoted? I leave the public to answer. So far as Captain Lacey is concerned as an individual, I have no war to make against him. The only object I have in view is the public welfare and the success of the Democratic party.

The Democracy of the country have The Democracy of the country have been solemnly appealed to by the Democratic members of Congress, to send no man to Washington, about whose eligibility there can be a question. It is in heedful regard to that appeal, that I have been induced to say what I have said.

Should the convention see fit to make Captain Lacey the standard-bearer of our party, I can assure "Democrat" that it will afford me great pleasure to support will afford me great pleasure to support him. THE ARGUMENT OF FACTS.-With the consent of the parties concerned, the fol-lowing facts are made public: On the 23d of October last, Levi M. Phillips, civil engineer, residing in Harlem, was sufferlng from an obstinate and severe bilions affection, accompanied by great bodily weakness and utter loss of appetite. In compliance with the wish of a friend, (Mr. J. S. Latrobe, of 49 Amity Place, New York), Mr. Phillips commenced taking Plantation Bitters. He had no faith, he said, but would "make the experiment." We give the result, as related by Mr. P. himself, at 53 Park Place, on the 30th of November. "I met Latrobe the other day in a restaurant." said he, "and told him that the preparation saved my life. I say so now. I weigh fourteen pounds more than I did five weeks ago, an quite well, and as to cating—well, ask pounds more than I did five weeks ago, am quite well, and as to eating—well, ask me to dinner and you'll see." THE FAVORITE ISLAND MURDER. sassin of Mr. and Mrs. Goode Discovered in an Indiana Jati.

"Murder will out," is an old and trite awying that very often finds verification. On the 25th inst, it proved so. On that day a young man lying in an Indiana, isil, charged with horse-stealing, was found to be the murderer of Mr. and Mrs. Goode, of Favorite Island, who were killed under circumstances of startling atrecity some months ago. A few days since we published in the Arraat the facts of this young man's arrest and the suspicion that attached to him. This morning we present from a New Providence (Ind.) correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal the particulars of the arrival of Back, his arrest, examinations of his effects and his possible transifer to the Mississippi authorities. The correspondent says: "In the month of May or June, a young man came in our midst by the name of Charles Back, Haying relatives living near here, he spent a part of his time with them, the rest of the time (being a youth of dashing manners) he endeavored to improve in company with the gentler sex. He avoided any occupation, and when asked why he disn't work, or how he could get fifty dollars per month overseeing negroes South. After remaining here a abort time, he left, returning in the course of time with a fine horse. Officers came in search of the young man and horse, arrested Back and lodged him in the Washington county jail at Salem, He has since been removed to Greensburg, Decaur county. Indiana—the county from which be stole the horse—where he is now awaiting his triat, though it is not likely be will be troubled greatly for this crime, as another and a greater charge will be brought against him. Yesterday were somewhat surprised to see Sheriff Fultz, of Washington (an adjoining county), with two other goullemen, looking as though they meant business among us. Fultz, of Washington (an adjoining county), with two other gentlemen, looking as though they meant business among us. One of the gentlemen proved to be T. S. Belcher, Sheriff of Tunica county, Miss., the other the Prosecuting Attorney of the same county. While young Back was confined in jail at Salem, the Sheriff, Mr. confined in Jail at Saleri, the Sheriff, Mr. Fultz, happened to see an account of a most horrible murder, committed on an island of the Mississippi, in the county of Tunica, and State of Mississippi, and having heard the prisoner speak of having been in those parts, he went into the prison, searched the prisoner's person, and found a note of $1000 drawn up in favor of one of the murdered parties, Mr. J. M. Goode, or Mrs. Mary Goode. He immediately wrote to the Mississippi authorities in reference to the mattar, which was the cause of their coming. After getting out crat," in his last article, has driven the final nail in the Captain's political coffin, at least until his disabilities are removed by Congress or the required oath is repealed. The many acts of relief, sympathy and aid recounted by "Democrat," totally disqualify Captain Lacey, as much so as if he had been in the Confederate ranks with a musket on his shoulder.

"Democrat" says, "if he can underwould further criminate Back. The gun a doule-barreled shot gun, belonging to Mr. Goode, and the one with which Back killed Mr. and Mrs Goode, was found; also some cloth
